

Network Working Group
Request for Comments # 450
NIC # 14134

M. Padlipsky
MIT-MULTICS
February 8, 1973

MULTICS SAMPLING TIMEOUT CHANGE

In response to popular demand, and in view of the fact that we've found an extra bit of budget, the timeout on sampling ("anonymous") use of Multics via the Net has been increased to 5 cpu minutes (from 1 cpu minute); coupled with various internal speedups, this change should allow the performance of substantive experiments in a single session.

[This RFC was put into machine readable form for entry]
[into the online RFC archives by Alex McKenzie with]
[support from GTE, formerly BBN Corp. 9/99]